Hope

Medium: Watercolor & Acrylic Paint

Artist Statement:

This art piece represents my own true emotions. My emotion that shows through this painting is the hopeful and the confidence I have finally have. This is one of the most important phases of my life, when I accept myself for who I am and who I willing to become.

Description:

A masculine young woman, side view profile, head tilted upwards slightly-looking up to the sky point of view. Different shades of blue and purple flowy type of hair, with yellow-greenish eye, a sharp jawline with a very defined neck structure, a single golden earring, delicate strong figure shoulder, with highlights. Splashes of light blue and purple in the background. Black ink outline of the woman's structure and features.
