Septapus

Medium: Watercolor and Ink

Artist Statement:

I am naturally drawn to marine life so I chose to do a septapus instead of a traditional octopus because it symbolizes that our oceans are taking in so much trash that this particle octopus lost one of its tentacles due to trash in our oceans. I also chose to do zentangle because it's calming and helps people get into a zen state.

Description:

It's a watercolor of an octopus with only 7 tentacles, it has zentangle designs all the way down each tentacle and body.
