

Coffee Run

Student: Malea Fulton
District: Spokane Public Schools
School: Lewis & Clark High School
Instructor: Elizebeth Jones

Coffee Run

Medium: Pen, markers, color pencils on Paper

Artist Statement

This piece was inspired by my dad's love for coffee, and the morning struggle when he doesn't get any. I wanted to personify an animal to have this characteristic and chose a bee because they are addicted to honey. I used the background to tell the story of a morning coffee run.

Description

The life of a bee and the need for honey

Status: Exhibit only