Medium: Graphite

Artist Statement

Enjoy all the little moments, you would be surprised at how many turn into core memories. The reference photo was taken while my brother and I were on a scavenger hunt during a cross-country practice. We needed a photo with a flower which is why there is one behind his ear, but his facial expressions were solely based on wanting to have the most interesting photos out of the all the teams participating.

Description

“9x12” graphite drawing of my brother.
