Artist Statement

My recent passion in photography has been studio/portraiture work. This is one of my favorite shots because the model is my lovely girlfriend, hence the name of my piece, Candy Crush. This photo shoot made me feel particularly inspired because it was a fun and colorful theme that matches her personality and vibe beautifully.

Description

This photo depicts a girl shot from a lower angle. I used her hair as a leading line to guide the viewers into the photo, toward her eyes that fall perfectly on the rule of thirds. She is looking directly into the camera, biting down on a sour rainbow rope. The theme of this photoshoot was "Candy Crush" it was inspired the personality of my girlfriend, I wanted to portray her in a way that reflects who she is to me and the way she likes people to perceive her.
