Road to Success

Medium: Digital

Artist Statement

My name is Shaina Ochs and I'm a junior at Northport High School. I wanted to show how someone can have an empty path ahead of them and how they can choose that path in order to succeed. This picture was captured up in rural Northport, Washington where each road you take can greatly impact your life.

Description

This is a picture of the area around Sheep Creek in Northport, Washington. I wanted to capture how beautiful the area can be and how important it is to take the road to success.
